FILL OUT THE REST OF THE FORM

The instructions that follow are numbered the same as the questions on the Notice of Motion and Motion form.

1. Mediation

A mediator is a person outside the court system who helps the parties to reach an agreement to settle their differences, instead of having someone else (the Judge) decide for the parties. NOTE: The court cannot order you and your spouse to attend mediation if you or your spouse allege domestic violence. Check off whether you want the court to order you and your spouse to use a mediator to attempt to reach an agreement regarding one or more of the issues listed. If YES, then check off which issue(s) you would like a mediator to help you with.

2. Maintenance

Formerly called “alimony,” maintenance is an amount paid by one person to the other to help cover living costs and personal expenses. Check off how you would like the court to decide the issue of temporary maintenance. Check box (a) if neither you nor your spouse should receive temporary maintenance. Check box (b) if you do not want the court to decide the issue of maintenance at this time. Check box (c) if you want your spouse to pay you a specific amount for temporary maintenance, and then fill in that amount.

3. Attorney’s Fees

Check off how you would like the Court to decide the issue of attorney’s fees. Check box (a) if you want the court to order you and your spouse to each pay your own attorney’s fees. 4. Use of Parties’ Home

Check off how you would like the court to temporarily divide use and possession of the parties’ home and who should pay the mortgage and other expenses for the home:

- Check (b) if you want your spouse alone to have sole use and possession of your home until the final decree is issued. Check off who will pay the mortgage and other expenses for the home.

- Check (c) if your spouse should have sole use and possession of certain items until the final decree is issued and then list those items.

6. Vehicles

The court may temporarily allow you and your spouse to use and possess certain vehicles. The court may also order one party to make loan payments and insurance payments on a vehicle, even if that party does not have use and possession of the vehicle. If you and your spouse own any vehicles, check box (a) and for each vehicle owned by the parties, list the year, make and model, and then identify to whom use and possession of the vehicle should be temporarily awarded and who should be responsible for the payment of the vehicle's loan and insurance. If you and your spouse do not have any debts, check box (b). Use Confidential Information Form 11.1 (CON111) to list the creditor's name, account numbers, and balance owed.

To protect the privacy of you and your spouse, all social security numbers, employer identification numbers, and financial account numbers must not be listed on papers you file with the court. You must use Form 11.1 when providing these confidential numbers to the court. Failure to use Form 11.1 means these numbers could be available to the general public and you could be charged court costs and the court may order other sanctions against you for the failure to keep this information private.

8. Insurance

By law, all currently available insurance coverage must be maintained and continued without change in coverage or beneficiaries. Check off whether you want the court to allow you to change certain insurance policies covering you, your spouse, or minor child(ren). When your Notice of Motion and Motion, Affidavit, and Parenting / Financial Disclosure Statement have been completed contact the court administrator's office for a hearing date and time.

Step 6 Serve Notice on Your Spouse At Least 18 Days Before the Hearing Date

You must arrange for your spouse to receive notice of the hearing and complete copies of all documents you have prepared for the hearing. This is called “service of process.” A party to an action is not allowed to serve the other party to the action. You MUST have someone else who is over the age of 18 serve your spouse. To serve the papers by mail, follow these instructions:

1. The server places one copy of the completed Notice of Motion and Motion form, one copy of your Affidavit in support of your Motion, and one copy of the completed Parenting / Financial Disclosure Statement (and all attachments) form in an envelope. Then, the server writes your return address and the last known address of your spouse on the front of the envelope. The server then places the correct amount of postage on the envelope (the server may want to take the envelope to the post office to have it weighed to insure the correct amount of postage).

If your server mailed your legal papers to your spouse, see “A” below.

If your server personally handed your legal papers to your spouse, see “B” below.

- A. Service by Mail - After the envelope containing the forms has been mailed to your spouse, then the server (the person who mailed the forms to your spouse) must fill out the Affidavit of Service by Mail form. This form proves to the court that your papers were mailed to your spouse.
 1. Fill out the top part of the form the same way you did on your Notice of Motion and Motion form in Step 1 above.
 2. On the blank line after it says “State of Minnesota, County _____,” fill in the name of the county where the server was when (s)he signed the Affidavit of Service by Mail.

By signing the Affidavit of Service by Mail under penalty of perjury, the server is stating that the information in the Affidavit is true to the best of his / her knowledge. Perjury is the crime of intentionally lying or misrepresenting the truth, punishable by jail or other sanctions.

11. After it has been signed, make one copy of the Affidavit of Service by Mail for your records.
- B. Personal Service - After the server has personally handed your papers to your spouse or your spouse's attorney, if represented, the server must fill out the Affidavit of Personal Service form included in this packet. This proves to the court that your spouse received a copy of your legal papers.
 1. Fill out the top part of the form the same way you did on your Notice of Motion and Motion form in Step 1 above.
 2. On the blank line after it says "State of Minnesota, County _____," fill in the name of the county where the server was when (s)he signed the Affidavit of Personal Service.
 3. Fill in the name of the person who hand-delivered the documents.
 4. Fill in the date of birth of the person who hand-delivered the documents.
 5. Fill in the date that the papers were personally served (handed to your spouse).
 6. List the papers that were actually hand-delivered.
 7. Fill in the name of the person to whom the documents were hand-delivered (your spouse).
 8. The server must sign the Affidavit of Personal Service under penalty of perjury. By signing the Affidavit of Personal Service under penalty of perjury, the server is stating that the information in the Affidavit is true to the best of his / her knowledge. Perjury is the crime of intentionally lying or misrepresenting the truth, punishable by jail or other sanctions.
8. After it has been signed, make one copy of the Affidavit of Personal Service for your records.

Step 8 File the Forms With the Court

The following documents must be RECEIVED by the Court Administrator's office in the county where your case is located AT LEAST 14 DAYS BEFORE THE DATE OF THE HEARING.

- The Notice of Motion and Motion for Temporary Relief;
- The Affidavit in Support of Motion for Temporary Relief Without Children;

- The Parenting / Financial Disclosure Statement, and all attachments;
- The Affidavit of Service by Mail OR Affidavit of Personal Service; and a filing fee; if applicable.

If you did not pay a filing fee when this case was first begun, you will now need to pay the filing fee. If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, a judge may waive it under certain circumstances. Ask court administration for an In Forma Pauperis (IFP) application. This application will be reviewed by a judge who will determine whether you must pay the filing fee. If the judge does not sign the IFP form that waives the fee, you must be prepared to pay the filing fee, or the Court Administrator cannot accept your forms.

Step 9 Appear in Court

You must go to Court on the date set for the hearing. Be sure to be on time. Bring with you to the hearing your copies of all papers. DO NOT BRING CHILDREN TO THE HEARING! After the hearing, the judge will issue an order. The judge may issue the order at the end of the hearing or may send a copy of the order to you in the mail.
